RE: Recount for Mayor

Dear Joe:

I have enclosed the Abstracts of the Recount which we conducted today for the Mayor for the City of Elgin.

The process involved the following:

1. Breaking the seals on the locked Ballot Boxes from General Election

2. Board of four ladies separated all of the city ballots per precinct and per early or final pickup. Once the city ballots were separated from the remainder of the ballot cards, these were checked twice for any write-in votes for mayor.

3. Once the write-in ballots for Mayor were separated from the other ballot cards, the chair read the names of the write-in candidates the other three ladies tallied the votes.

In response to your question, if all ballots were checked for write-ins, the answer is "yes".

I shall appreciate receiving the acceptance of the Abstract of Votes for the recount.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

R. NELLIE BOGUE HIBBERT
Union County Clerk
